

Suffering in order to help
Hebrews 2:14-18

I. Why did he taste death?

- A. Jesus tasted death so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, the devil.

- B. Jesus tasted death in order to deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery.

- C. Jesus tasted death so that he might become our merciful & faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

II. His suffering enables his help.
