

God's Final Word

Hebrews 1:1-4

Big Idea: God's final, superior revelation is found in his Son, Jesus. When we see & hear the Son, we see & hear the Father. No one else reveals God to us, like Jesus.

- I. The importance of God revealing Himself to us.
- II. The importance of God revealing Himself through the prophets.
- III. The Superiority of God's Revelation in His Son.
 - "For by him all things were created, in heaven & on earth, visible & invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him & for him." (Colossians 1:16, ESV)
 - "He Himself is a divine center of the out-ricing of God's glory, co-eternal and co-existent with the Father, of the same substance as the Father and, while the Son by eternal generation from the Father, yet also very God of very God, possessing in Himself life and light." Kenneth Wuest
 - "for the Son to be the kind of direct, authentic, and compelling expression of the Father described in these phrases...He must participate somehow in the being of God itself, that is, He must Himself be deity to accomplish the wonderful mission described here." P.T. O'Brien

IV. Take home thoughts:

- A. There is no need for another revelation.
- B. Don't aim too low.
