

What do you seek?

John 1:35-39

Big Idea: Eternal life is more than living forever, it is the fullness of life in union with God, through Christ that goes on forever. And the degree to which we possess and experience that, today, in THIS LIFE, hangs heavily on one question: What do you seek?

- I. John's purpose for writing his gospel.

- II. Zóé is about the substance or quality of the life we have. A life characterized as Zoe would not only see their life through the divine lens, but seeks to use that life as a tool primarily to bring God glory. A life of Zoe thrives in the divine dance which brings God's kingdom to bear in this life, seeing each moment of their life as a moment on the stage in the theater of Heaven to reveal God's glory and finds its greatest joy and satisfaction in the accomplishment of that.
