

Relationships After the Fall

Genesis 3-4

Big idea: Sin always separates but Jesus always moves toward reconciliation.

- I. Sin's effects on Relationships.
 - A. Sin causes us to live for ourselves rather than above God's glory.
 - B. Sin causes us to be unreconciled to God.
 - C. Sin separates us from one another.
- II. The promise and a picture of God's plan for restoration.
 - A. God moves toward us in reconciliation.
 - B. God moves toward us so that we can move toward others for reconciliation.
 - C. God transforms our sinful desires.